

Since the 19th century, Salou has been a leading tourist destination in Europe

The first holiday-makers who fell in love with Salou arrived in the second half of the 19th century. Since that time, Salou has been a holiday destination par excellence in Europe.

Its golden sand beaches and coves, the calm waters and temperate climate are its greatest attractions, which are complemented with internationally renowned sport and leisure possibilities.

Quality, excellence and respect for the environment are the standards used when working on the Salou coast. Salou's beaches hold environmental certification by ISO 14001. The Q flag for Quality flies proudly at the Ponent and Llevant beaches, a certificate granted by the Spanish Institute for Tourist Quality (ICTE). Furthermore, the Catalan Tourism Agency has honoured Salou with the seal of Sport Tourism Destination.
